[X] What are the district's next steps to ensure that annually the appropriate test is administered to each student?

All students who are taking the DLM test and those potentially placed will have an independent reviewer employed by the Tri-County Cooperative (The Special Education Director) reassess whether each student potentially meets the rubric standards and check for completed rubrics. If there is a potential for not meeting the standard in one area of the rubric, the full team will be convened to meet again to reassess the rubric and examine the data to make the determination.

Based on the data for our district, our LEA needs additional training.
