Based on the data provided in KIAS for disproportionality, our district needs to address disproportionality (A risk ratio greater than 3.0 needs to be addressed.)

- [x] Yes
- [ ] No

If yes, please explain how you will address the disproportionality.

This district is disproportionate in free/reduced and male. The IEP team works through the process of determining the use of the DLM assessment on the individual needs and not by a specific subgroup. The district has a high percent of free/reduced, so a higher ratio in this area makes sense. In regards to the male ratio, at this time we have a higher group of males that need to utilize the DLM assessment to meet their needs. We will continue to monitor and look closely at the individual results to help us determine if they will need to continue with the DLM assessment. At this time, all of these students qualify and are in need of taking the DLM.

Percentage of students performing at target or advanced on the DLM for the school year.

☐ Please provide a narrative that includes the data types and processes that the IEP teams are utilizing to qualify students for the Alternate Assessments (DLM) in the box below and press Save.

The IEP teams look at the following data to determine which assessment is used for each individual student: Cognitive testing data, achievement testing data, DLM Qualification Rubric, adaptive skills assessment, and they also look at the instruction given to each student. Students that qualify for the DLM are also receiving their instruction that is tied to the Essential Elements.

The DLM Qualification Rubric is completed prior to and during the IEP meetings. During the meeting, this data is shared along with the other assessment data. The IEP teams make the decision on instruction and assessment for each individual student.

☐ What are the district's next steps to ensure that annually the appropriate test is administered to each student?

IEP teams meet to discuss the appropriate instruction and assessments for students with the most cognitive disabilities. The DLM Qualification Rubric is used to determine if the DLM is the appropriate assessment for each individual student. The students that qualify for the DLM are also being instructed using the DLM Essential Elements. Assessments and instruction are an IEP team decision, but the data from the rubric is used to help drive the decision.

Based on the data for our district, our LEA needs additional training.
