IEP teams in USD 338 use the DLM guidelines in conjunction with the WebKIDSS rubric to determine eligibility for the DLM. The data used to help make DLM determination is derived from student IEPs, evaluation reports, classroom based assessments and adaptive behavior assessments. This determination is made by IEP teams at IEP meetings. Parents, Gen Ed teachers, SPED teachers, Related Service Providers and admin are all involved in this process.

The district will continue to use the above-referenced methods for DLM determination. Because of the small group size, the inclusion of even 1 student will potentially place the percentage of students who take the DLM above 1%.
