Based on the data provided in KIAS for disproportionality, our district needs to address disproportionality (A risk ratio greater than 3.0 needs to be addressed.)

- [x] Yes
- [ ] No

If yes, please explain how you will address the disproportionality.

A disproportionality is present in multiple subgroups for ELA, Math, and Science due to the "N" size being small in size. 619 and Belle Plaine address disproportionality by reviewing practices and procedures for placing students in a low incidence classroom. Further, we educate our functional teachers to ensure they are knowledgeable of the DLM qualifying guidelines to ensure we are not over qualifying students needing the DLM. As a student makes progress, the team determines if a student no longer qualifies for the DLM which is the ultimate goal of the team.

Percentage of students performing at target or advanced on the DLM for the school year.

ELA:	43%
Math:	0%
Science:	0%

[X] Please provide a narrative that includes the data types and processes that the IEP teams are utilizing to qualify students for the Alternate Assessments (DLM) in the box below and press Save.

IEP teams in collaboration with 619 Interlocal staff evaluate each student's present levels of performance annually. Data from school psychological reports, local assessments, progress monitoring, and classroom performance is evaluated to decide on appropriate instructional placement. In addition, discussions with staff and parents take all assessment and performance information into consideration along with the identified disability to determine the appropriate assessment to measure academic progress. The DLM guidelines are reviewed and the team makes a determination appropriate to each student. IEP teams are also required to complete, "sign-off," and submit KSDE's "Rubric for Determining Student Eligibility for the Kansas Alternate Assessment (DLM)." Students who qualify for the DLM show significant cognitive disabilities based on testing that occurs during the evaluation process for students to qualify for services. These results can include students who show an intellectual disability, multiple disabilities or autism. In addition to cognitive tests, students who qualify for the DLM are significantly below grade level and are unable to complete assignments at or even two grade levels below that of their peers. Further, students who qualify for the DLM, show a significant deficit in adaptive behavior and are oftentimes leaving with life skills that are beneficial once they complete high school. Students' daily curriculum and instruction is aligned to DLM essential elements and the student requires extensive paraprofessional or teacher support for individualized instruction.

[X] What are the district's next steps to ensure that annually the appropriate test is administered to each student?

The district will continue to monitor DLM results annually as well as review student progress and needs in daily instruction to ensure the student does continue to qualify to take the DLM. Should the student make adequate progress and no longer require the DLM, the district will appropriately meet as a team and update the assessment as necessary. This is reviewed annually to determine the student is still eligible to take the DLM utilizing guidelines as the team makes a determination appropriate to each student. IEP teams are required to complete, "sign-off," and submit KSDE's "Rubric for Determining Student Eligibility for the Kansas Alternate Assessment (DLM)" annually.

Based on the data for our district, our LEA needs additional training.
